NOTIFICATION BY THE MADHYA PRADESH
COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE LIMITED, AKOLA

The approval of the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission under Sub-section (1) of Section 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952 (74 of 1952), read with Notification of the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry No. S.O. 1162, dated the 4th May, 1960 has been obtained to the following amendments made to the Bye-laws of the Madhya Pradesh Commercial Exchange Limited, Akola, the same having been previously placed on the Notice Board of the Exchange, pursuant to Section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954.

AMENDMENTS

In the said Bye-laws :

I. After Bye-law 250A, the following new Bye-law 250B shall be added, namely :—

"250B. Whenever under Bye-law 27B maximum rate or rates are fixed during a delivery period or if the same shall have been fixed during a non-delivery period and shall not have come to an end on the first tender day, notwithstanding anything contained in other Bye-laws the following provisions shall apply in respect of delivery orders and delivery of goods thereunder regarding transactions for such delivery period.

If the seller does not issue delivery order for the fulfilment of his outstanding sale transactions by the last tender day of the delivery period, the seller shall pay damages equivalent to the differences between the rates of previous clearings or the rates of the contracts (whichever are applicable) and the due date rates provided such rates are higher than the rates of the previous clearings or the rates of the contracts. The seller shall also pay penalties as prescribed in Bye-law 254A in respect of cottonseed and as prescribed in Bye-law 297 in respect of groundnut oil provided the amounts so prescribed do not exceed the amounts equivalent to the differences between the due date rates and the maximum rates fixed for the respective commodities. In case the amounts of penalties prescribed under Bye-laws 254A and 297 exceed the differences between due date rates and the maximum rates fixed, the penalties payable shall be equivalent to the differences between the due date rates and the maximum rates fixed for the respective commodities.

If the seller has issued delivery order without any goods to tender against the same or the seller or his agent or his muddadam does not give delivery of the goods, the buyer shall act in accordance with other Bye-laws and shall be entitled to a penalty of Re. 1 per quintal in respect of cottonseed and Rs. 7.50 per quintal in respect of groundnut oil."

After Bye-law 250B, the following new Bye-law 250C shall be added, namely :—

"250C. The provisions of Bye-law 250B shall be applicable to May 1964 and subsequent deliveries in respect of cottonseed and to March 1964 and subsequent deliveries in respect of groundnut oil."

NOTIFICATION BY THE HYDERABAD OILS & SEEDS EXCHANGE LTD., HYDERABAD

The approval of the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission, under Sub-section (1) of Section 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952 (74 of 1952), read with Notification of the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry No. S.O. 1162, dated the 4th May, 1960 has been obtained to the following amendments made to the Bye-laws of the Hyderabad Oils & Seeds Exchange Ltd., Hyderabad same having been previously placed on the Notice Board of the Exchange pursuant to Section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954.

AMENDMENTS

1. For Bye-law 135, the following Bye-law shall be substituted, namely :—

"135. In the event of any dispute with regard to quality or specifications of goods, a sample weighing total 1000 Grams i.e. 500 Grams by each party will be drawn by the buyer and the seller at the time of delivery by each party selecting 5 tins each per 65 tins or one barrel each per six barrels per each delivery order of one Metric Tonne. The sample thus drawn shall be mixed and divided into equal four parts and packed in four bottles and sealed with the seals or the signatures of both the buyer and the seller. Two bottles will go for analysis to the Exchange and the other two will remain one each with the buyer and the seller. The sample so taken out shall be forwarded by the buyer to the Exchange within 48 hours from the date of the sample so taken out with a request for analysis and accompanied by necessary charges. In case the buyer fails to send the sealed sample to the Exchange within the prescribed time, the seller may intimate to the Exchange within 24 hours after the expiry of the above mentioned 48 hours and the Exchange will compel the buyer to submit the sample. If the buyer and the seller do not mutually complete the above procedure, any of them shall intimate to the Exchange to send the representative of the Exchange to complete the procedure, of drawing samples which shall be acceptable to the buyer and the seller. The expenses of the representative of the Exchange shall be borne by the parties as fixed by the Board'.

Provided, however, that :—

If the buyer has received delivery orders on the same mill or godown for more than one Metric Tonne issued by the same seller, and the buyer has expressed his willingness in writing to the seller to draw only one sample at the time of delivery against all such delivery orders, the seller shall not object to the same and a sample weighing total 1000 grams will be drawn as per procedure laid down in the preceding clause.

Provided, however, that :—

The provisions of second para of this Bye-law shall not apply in case the seller gives in writing that the goods tendered by him, though lying in the same mills or godown, are not the product of a single mill in such case separate samples shall be drawn of different lots.

2. For Bye-law 139(a) the following Bye-law shall be substituted, namely :—

"139(a). The sealed samples shall be sent in the first instance to such laboratories or agency as may be approved by the Board for analysis. Whenever appeals are preferred either by the buyer or the seller against analysis report of the approved laboratory or agencies aforesaid, the sample will be sent for re-analysis to M/s. Hughes & Davies, Bombay and the report of M/s. Hughes & Davies, Bombay for the purposes of the Bye-laws shall be authentic and shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute."

3. For Bye-law No. 247A(b) the following Bye-law shall be substituted, namely :—

"247A(b). If the seller does not issue delivery order for the fulfilment of his outstanding sale transactions by the last tender day of the delivery period the seller shall pay damages equivalent to the difference between the rate of the previous clearing or the rate of the contract, (whichever is applicable) and the due date rate or the maximum rate whichever is lower provided such rate is higher than the rate of the previous clearing or the rate of the Contract. The seller shall also pay in addition such penalty as is provided in Bye-law 127 provided the amounts so prescribed do not exceed the amount equivalent to the difference between the due date rate and the maximum rate fixed. In case the amounts of penalty prescribed under Bye-law 127 exceed the difference between the due date rate and the maximum rate fixed, the penalty payable shall be equivalent to the difference between the due date rate and the maximum rate fixed.

If the seller has issued delivery order without any goods to tender against the same or the seller or his Muddadam or his agent does not give delivery of the goods, the buyer shall act in accordance with other bye-laws and shall be entitled to a penalty of Re. 1 per 10 Kg. in respect of Groundnut Oil."

4. After Bye-law 247A(b) the following new Bye-law shall be added as Bye-law 247A(c), namely :—

"247A(c). For the purpose of April 1964 and subsequent deliveries of hedge contracts in Groundnut Oil the Bye-law 247A(b) as amended by the Board of Directors at its meeting on 20th December 1963 and approved by the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission shall be applicable and for the purpose of December 1963 and February 1964 hedge contracts in Groundnut Oil Bye-law 247A(b) as it stood immediately before the date of approval by the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission shall be applicable."
